

4.	Tribal Opponents Contact the White House, and the White House Contacts Interior	177
a.	Patrick O'Connor's First Attempts to Involve the White House	177
b.	O'Connor Speaks to President Clinton and Bruce Lindsey	178
c.	O'Connor's May 8, 1995, Letter to Harold Ickes	185
d.	Thomas Schneider's Contacts With Ickes	187
e.	Ickes's Office Contacts the Interior Department	191
1)	Jennifer O'Connor's May 18, 1995, Memo	193
2)	Heather Sibbison's June 6, 1995, Conversation with the White House	197
3)	Department of the Interior Assistance in Responding to the June 12, 1995, Congressional Letter to Ickes	199
f.	White House Policy Regarding Contacts With Agencies	201
g.	O'Connor & Hannan Curtails Its Lobbying of the White House Prior to the Decision on July 14, 1995	206
5.	Other Tribal Opponents Continue Lobbying	207
F.	Events Occurring During On-Going Analysis of Application by DOI in Washington, D.C. (May 1, 1995-June 8, 1995)	209
1.	Collier, Duffy and Skibine Meet with Congressman Oberstar on May 2, 1995	209
2.	The Four Feathers Partnership Enlists Lobbyists	211
3.	Four Feathers Partners Meet with Duffy and IGMS Staff on May 17, 1995	213
4.	White House Contacts with Interior During Consideration of the Hudson Application	216
5.	Tribal Opponents Meet with Michael Anderson and IGMS Staff on May 23, 1995	218
6.	Four Feathers Representatives Meet with IGMS Staff on May 31, 1995	220
7.	Further Contact Between IGMS Staff and Applicant Representatives	222
8.	IGMS Concludes that the Hudson Casino Proposal Would Not Be Detrimental to the Surrounding Community	224
G.	The Department of the Interior Decides to Deny the Hudson Application	229
1.	Internal Debates Over the Basis of Denial: IGRA Section 20 or IRA and Part 151 Regulations	229
2.	Skibine Drafts a Decision Letter Denying the Hudson Application Based Only Upon the Secretary's Discretion Under IRA and Part 151 Regulations	233